Have you ever fantasized about what it would be like to win the lottery? I have. As they say, “You have to be in it to win it.” And that’s probably part of my problem with this fantasy. I’m not in it. But I have wondered what it would be like to win the big lottery. Amongst the thoughts of what I might do with all of that money (after the government took its share) is the thought of financially never being in want again. All of those things being taken care of for the rest of my life. Being debt free for the entirety of the rest of my life.

In Psalm 1 David writes, “Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.”

David paints this picture for us of a tree that’s literally planted next to streams of water. If you’re that tree that means that you’ve pretty much got it made. You’re never going to thirst again because the stream is always going to be there providing you with the water that you need to live.

In reading this passage, I’m left wondering if when David was writing this psalm, he was thinking of Deuteronomy 8:3 which tells us “Man does not live by bread alone; but man lives by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the Lord.” And yes, if you were wondering if Jesus was quoting this passage when He was being tempted by Satan in the wilderness, you were correct (see Luke 4:4).

Spending time in God’s word draws those who believe in Him into a closer life-changing relationship with Him. But we need to remember that what David says in this psalm isn’t simply reading and maybe memorizing scripture. What David says is that we should meditate on God’s word. To let God’s word become a part of us. When you meditate on God’s word, it requires active participation on your part.

A Series of Midweek Services for the Season of Lent

This series for Lent takes parishioners through some of the most familiar teachings of Jesus from His Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5-7 and relates them to the events surrounding Christ's life, death and resurrection. In the process, the services will powerfully reveal that the cross itself is the ultimate sermon on the mount for our journey of faith in this sacred season.
